- 1.2 The supplier does not accept any general conditions of purchase of the buyer except if and in as far as they have been accepted by the seller/supplier in writing.
- 1.3 If the supplier's order confirmation contains any conditions which deviate from these general conditions, the condition in the supplier's order- confirmation will prevail.

2. Agreement

- 2.1 All sales by the supplier are confirmed by the supplier in writing (i.e. by fax and/or mail and/or electronic mail).

- 2.3 The buyer is deemed to have accepted the supplier's order unless he has notified the supplier in writing to the contrary within ten working days after the date the confirmation of the supplier has been sent to the buyer.
- 2.4 The buyer is also deemed to have accepted the supplier's order if he has requested to start the execution of the order.
- 2.5 Order confirmations from the buyer which deviate from the supplier's order confirmation, are only binding to the supplier in as far as the supplier has accepted such deviations in writing.
- 2.6 The supplier's order may contain an abbreviated Incoterm condition (e.g. FOB, CIF, etc.); these Incoterm conditions are to be interpreted according to the most recent definitions published by the I.C.C.
